AKLAN, June, Nineteen Fifty-Four

Four years in high school leaves an indelible impression on our lives. During these years we are taught and guided; not only academically, but morally.

It is all important, therefore, that our teachers be what might be termed "good examples." Some, however, are far more than this, and it is they who, in their humble yet dynamic way, leave with us a respect and admiration that far exceeds just the appreciation of a good example. Such a man is John Annis.

DEDICATED TO JOHN ANNIS

FOREWORD

Acalanes is a colorful school. There is color in the buildings, in the gardens, and in the lawns; but in a greater sense, the color of Acalanes is in the students. In their actions and interests and with their enthusiasm, they make the school what it is. If, as you turn the pages of this book, you recall faces of friends, the fun you have had, and the things you have learned here at Acalanes, then we have accomplished our purpose.

and finally on a warm June afternoon it's over, and left are the friends we've made and the memories of our last year at Acalanes.

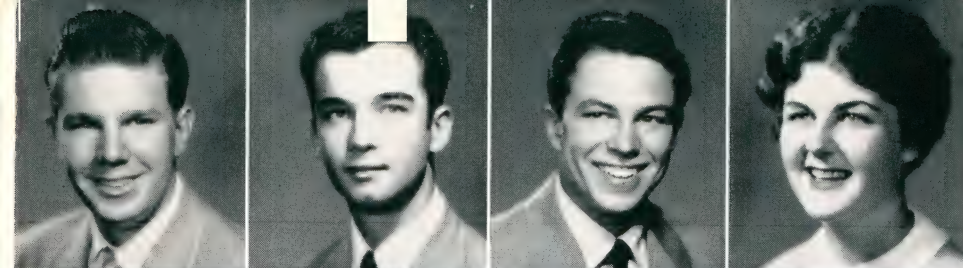

THE CLASS OF 1954

The graduating class of 1954 may well be proud of its outstanding record during the four years at Acalanes. Hard work and co-operation were the theme of this class, and any project, large or small, was met with an enthusiasm rarely to be matched.

High scholastic and athletic achievement plus a successful social calendar was climaxed by Mardi Gras, the senior ball for 1954.

SPORTS

ACALANES 7

UPSHAW 14

Led by their great Monty Upshaw, the Piedmont Highlanders edged the Dons 14-7. Upshaw's pass interception was the highlight and turning point of the game.

ACALANES 12

PITTSBURG 6

The proverbial "next year" came to Acalanes at last. For the first time in a long while the Dons walked off the field victors over Pittsburg. Bart Ferro's passing and field generalship put his team on the long end of the score.

ACALANES 26

ALHAMBRA 13

Led by our bruising fullback, Ray Williamson, the big, blue machine proved too much for the Bulldogs.

ACALANES 12

ALBANY 20

Riding high after two league victories, the Dons seemed to run out of gas when we met Albany. John Champlin and Rich Munn gave stellar performances, but all was lost when John Conley, outstanding safety, was taken to the hospital.

ACALANES 12

JOHN SWETT 6

After a loose first quarter, the Dons settled down to business with the Indians from John Swett. John Spiegel fulfilled a lineman's dream as he trapped the Swett quarterback in the end zone for a safety.

ACALANES 0

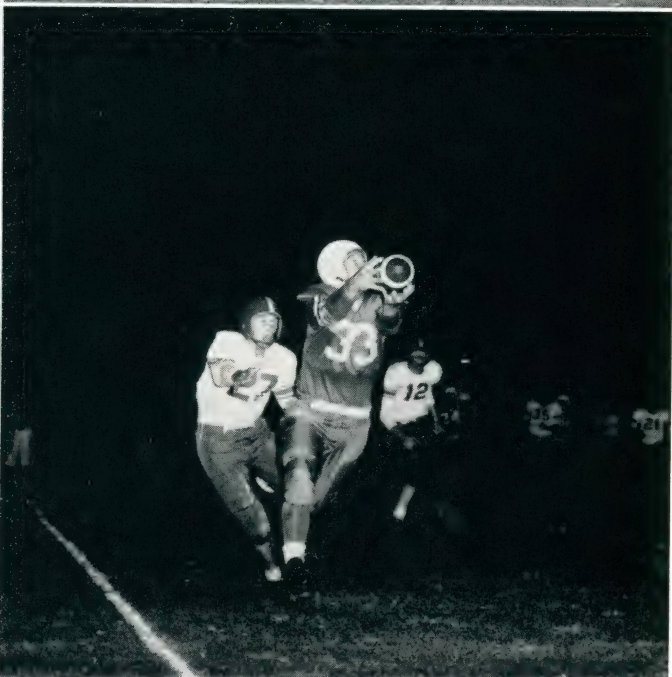

ANTIOCH 33

Wait 'till next year.

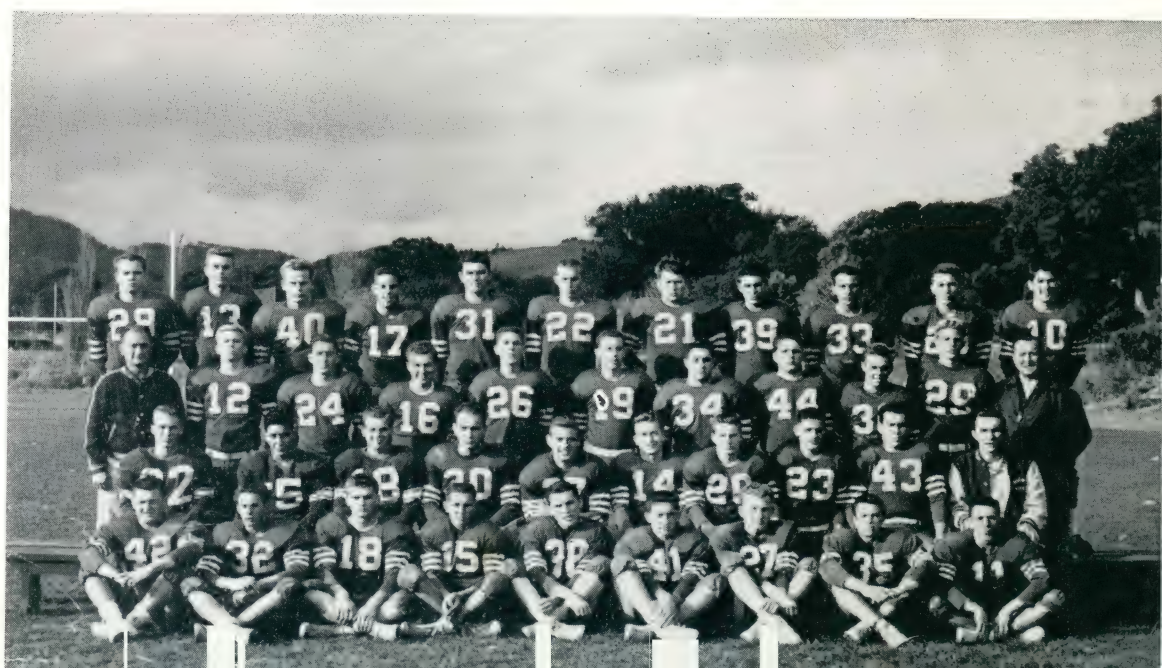

ACALANES 0

DIABLO 19

Covered with blue dye from their drenched pom-poms, the Acalanes rooters watched as the Red Devils, led by All-County fullback Stan Gaunt, slushed over a mired down Don eleven.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

ACALANES 27

ANTIOCH 6

Behind the strong running machine of Barrett, Faulk, Horner and Bell the Don Babes won their league opener in fine style.

ACALANES 13

LAS LOMAS 6

Sparked by Mike Barrett's 91-yard run in the first quarter, the Dons held back the favored Knights. A fourth quarter jaunt by Barrett proved to be the winning margin.

ACALANES 6

JOHN SWETT 0

Obviously impressed by their upset win over Las Lomas the Donlets barely edged a weak John Swett eleven. The game was marred with many penalties.

ACALANES 31

ALBANY 6

Led by the pinpoint passing of Red Jones, the J.V.'s outclassed their Albany foe. The game was highlighted by Gary Arel's 60-yard pass interception T.D.

ACALANES 35

ALHAMBRA 18

Scoring on the first play the Dons rolled up 29 points in the first quarter. The rest of the game was more of a practice session. Outstanding on defense was John Bohn.

ACALANES 2

PITTSBURG 6

Stopped by Pitt's stonewall defense the Dons copped only 2 points on a safety by Bob Roberts. The Donlets' only other score was called back on a penalty.

ACALANES 37

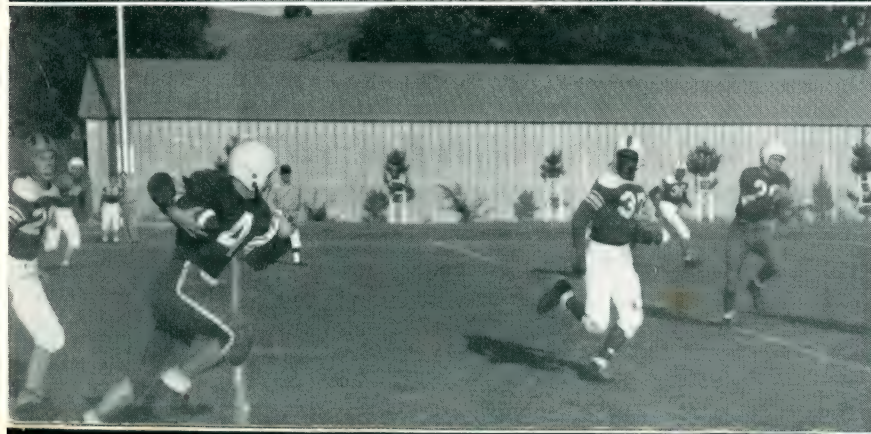

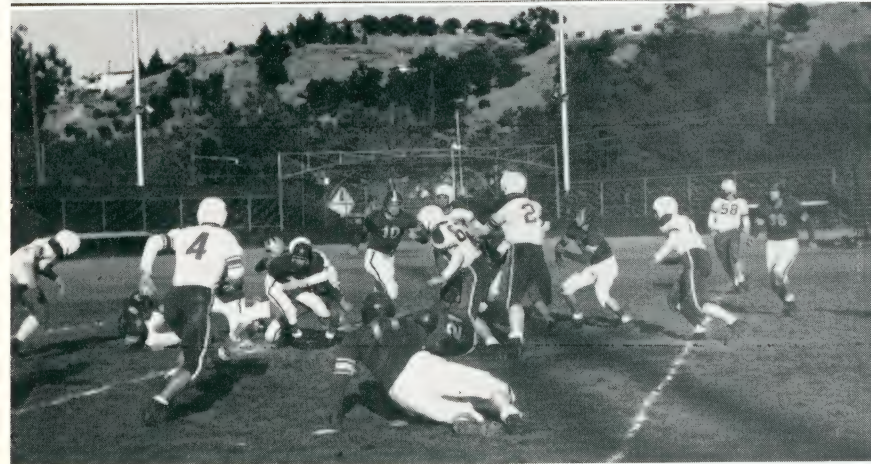

DIABLO 18

Behind Barrett and Bell the Dons completely outclassed their traditional rivals. The game was marred with many injuries.

ACALANES 24

PLEASANT HILL 6

The Acalanes J.V. football team won the C.C.C.A.L. football championship as the result of their victory over P.H. The team was sparked by Red Jones' passing and Gene Bell's running.

Another successful season was in the bag for the Don baseball team this year when they chalked up a second place with nine wins and two losses. Red Jones, the workhorse of the pitching staff, hurled six victories against only one loss. His strike-out average was eight batters per game. Matt's team boasted many other outstanding players including Bob Gray, Bart Ferro, Mike Barrett, Bob Kinney, Rich Munn, Benny Edgar, John Champlin, Warren Johnson, and Jerry Coakley. Since many of these stars are Juniors, Acalanes can look forward to a good year in '55.

As usual the Don swimmers came up with a winning season. The A's single defeat was at the hands of Hayward. Such noble teams as Mt. Diablo, Tamalpais, and San Leandro fell in our wake. The team came up with a freshman fish in George Harrison. The flash broke several school records in the backstroke. The B's had an equally successful season. Both teams placed first in the county.

Continuing their domination of the Contra Costa Golf League, the Acalanes Golf Team won their fifth straight title in county competition. Winning eight of the nine matches in which they participated, the Don linksmen were led by Denny Traynor with Ben Coombs, Wally Marsh, Bob Wilks, and Ray Orr scoring next in line.

Despite its first league loss in six years, coming at the hands of Diablo, the Acalanes tennis team captured its sixth straight C.C.C.A.L. championship. The first five men on this year's team were Dave Baldwin, Don Rathjen, Jim Browning, Phil Lowthian, and Morris Bergesen.

TRACK

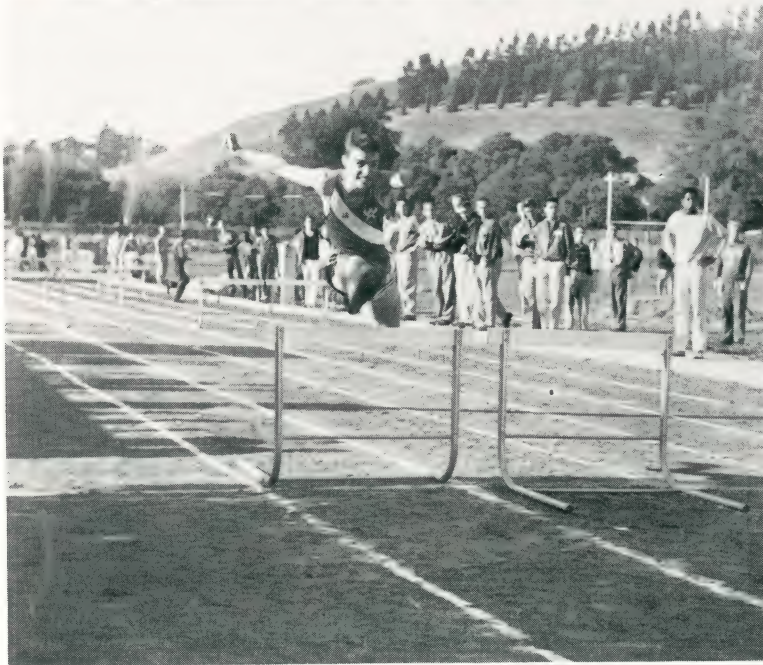

The track team this year was perhaps one of the best balanced cinder squads ever produced. Coach Eaton's thinclads lost only one of their six dual encounters. Such schools as Diablo, Pittsburg, and El Cerrito fell victim to their great depth while only Alameda bettered our abilities. The squad was paced by weight men Ray Williamson, Jim Hart, and Dennis Busby; pole vaulters Stan Mumford, Ray Oslin, and George Coad; broad jumper George Malvey. Acalanes this year came up with many outstanding distance men: Lee Benson, Fred Lincoln, Dick Hull, Jack Kenzul, and Dennis Meyer. Other outstanding performers were Gene Bell in the quarter mile, Geof Wahl and Bob Carlson in the sprints, and Jim Sweet in the hurdles, to name a few.

JR. ASSEMBLY

The cry of Bop Me Daddy-O rang through the rafters of the gym when the class of '55 put on their version of "THIS IS YOUR LIFE." Good bands, graceful dancers, and an invasion from the kindergarten made the assembly a great success.

The Senior Ball of 1954 was held on Saturday evening, May 29.
Pictured here are

RHAPSODY IN BLUE

The Junior Prom this year proved to be a huge success. The sensational decorations were a between high-brow jazz and city night life. Satisfying "Blue Angels" were provided for refreshment. Jack Buckingham's band created the music and a good time was enjoyed by all who attended RHAPSODY IN BLUE.

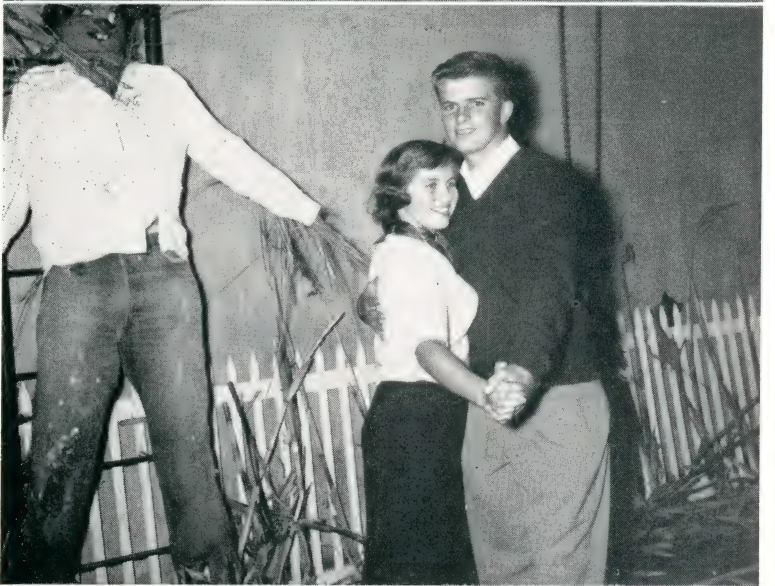

FROSH DAY

The bewildered freshman is no more. Before school opened the frosh were introduced to the yell leaders, the faculty, and our intricate system of numbering rooms. A bonfire, races, and a grand pie eating contest topped off this Frosh Day for 1953.

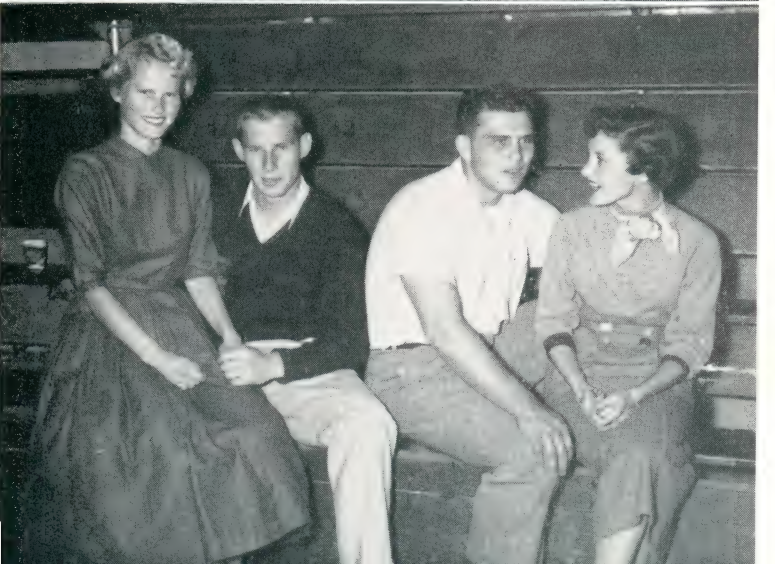

JACK-O-LANTERN JUMP

TEACHERS' DAY

April 27 will long be remembered by the faculty of Acalanes. This was teachers' day. The teachers, attired in casual clothing, feasted on the cafeteria's best while ruthless Seniors led the classes.
